DRESS CODE

A dairy princess and her court are chosen to be professional representatives of the dairy farmers of their county. For this reason the following guidelines are to be followed whenever they are on duty.

Wearing professional attire will help you make a positive first impression and help you gain respect for your position. As dairy royalty it's important to dress appropriately every day, as you may have the opportunity to meet media, public officials or dairy farmers. Your appearance and attire must reflect your gender assigned at birth. Appropriate attire supports your image as a person who takes your position seriously and understands the nature of the industry you represent. Professional attire may include crown and sash or polo shirt with nametag.

Events	Type of Attire	Appropriate Attire
State Competition, Gala	Formal	Gown, slips, (and nylons are optional)
Banquets, Speaking Engagement	Formal or Business/Professional	Business suit (skirt or pants), nylons
School, Store & Community Promotions	Business Casual	Dress pants, skirt
Fair Promotions, Dairy Shows or Ice Cream Sundae Events, Outdoor Summer Events	Casual	Dress khaki/cotton pants, sun dresses with straps, flats/twisted x/sperry
Fuel Up Promotions/Sporting Events	Casual	Dress khaki or cotton pants that allow for movement, cotton top/button up shirt, flat closed-toe shoes/twisted x/sperry
Barn Party/Farm Tour	Casual	Dress khaki or cotton pants that allow for movement, cotton top/button up shirt, flat closed-toe shoes/twisted x/sperry

Shirts

Shirts, dress shirts, sweaters and turtlenecks are acceptable attire for promotions if they contribute to the overall appearance of being a representative of the industry. Suit jackets are desirable at professional events. Blouses and tops should not be low cut. Cleavage as well as midriffs and backs must be covered at all times—this includes when moving around at events. All tops should have backs as well as ½” wide straps at the shoulders. A sweater or jacket can be added to a top or dress with thin straps to make it appropriate. Inappropriate attire includes tank tops; midriff tops; shirts with potentially offensive words, terms, logos, pictures, cartoons or slogans; halter-tops; tops with bare shoulders or plunging necklines; sweatshirts/hoodies; and t-shirts. The only time t-shirts and polo shirts are permitted are at special working events only, with the shirts provided by the volunteer organization coordinating the event or custom made shirts for the group to wear for the specific event. Crown and sash are to be worn during the event for identification with the dairy promotion team. These T-shirts and polo shirts are to be worn with pants, khakis, capris, or skorts.

Pants and Skirts

Skirts, skorts, dress capris and dresses should be of a reasonable length. The hemline and slits should be no shorter than the width of a dollar bill above the knee (sitting or standing). If the hemline or slit is higher than the dollar then it is too short. Nice dress pants or dress capris or dress khakis may be worn but the fabric should move freely. Pants should be ironed and preferably in a solid color (navy, black, gray, khaki or brown). Overall, be aware how pants and skirts fit as you walk, sit and while squatting down. Leggings are not considered pants. No shorts or jeans are permitted.

Undergarments

Proper undergarments should be worn at all times. Bras should never be seen over the shoulders or through armholes. Slips should be worn when wearing a transparent skirt or dress. Nylons should be worn in a business or formal setting; they are not required at school, community, store, fair and other casual events. Knee highs or dress socks can be worn when wearing pants.

Footwear

Footwear should be chosen that is appropriate to the wearer, the activity and the weather. All shoes including sandals must have a back strap. Clogs, crocs®, ballet flats with no sole and flip-flops are not acceptable footwear. When attending events for several hours, tennis shoes/sneakers may be worn at your discretion. Twisted X or Sperry like shoes are acceptable for show rings or farm/store events. Dress Boots with no lace will be accepted with appropriate dresses or skirts and pants must be outside the boot. Cowgirl/cowboy boots are not acceptable footwear.

Jewelry

Jewelry may be worn in moderation. When wearing jewelry, it is best to maintain a conservative style that is not too flashy. Earring(s) in the ear should not be large enough as to attract attention. While wearing your crown, a maximum of two pairs of earrings are allowed. You are not permitted to wear earrings in any other part of the body while wearing your crown and sash. Such piercings must be removed or covered with a band-aid during a promotion.

Makeup, Nail polish

Makeup and nail polish should be natural and conservative. Nail polish should not be chipped. The color should be conservative and not distracting. Any tattoos must be covered during a promotion.

Sashes

Sashes should be in good condition and have only one small pin to hold the sash in place. No decoration on the sash is permitted. i.e. extra pins, stickers, name tags, etc., are not acceptable. Sashes should not be altered without the permission of the PDPPS Board. Sashes should be worn to promotions outside their county for recognition of their positions (Princess, Alternate, or Junior Dairy Promoter).

Crowns

A crown should never be used as a hair band and should be worn so that combs are not visible. Only princesses and alternates are permitted to wear their crowns at state and district events. If a county gives Junior Dairy Promoters a crown, she is allowed to wear it at all promotions within her county except when the promotion is a state or district event. Junior Dairy Promoters may not wear their crowns at state and district events. Sashes and Crowns are considered formal dress attire but are not be worn on meal or restroom breaks.*

Formal Gown

Formal, full length gowns are required for State Competition. Gowns should be tasteful and not distracting to you or others. Gowns that are low-cut, backless or lacing up in the back must be altered to comply with dress code. Dresses with high slits will not be permitted. Dress may not be transparent in any area. When wearing a formal gown you should not wear long gloves, nor have large decorations on the dress that would interfere with the display of your sash across the shoulder. All gowns must have two sewn in straps. Halter top gowns are acceptable. No bra straps should show, including across the back. All openings below the bra strap line in the front or the back of a gown must be covered with a panel. Slips must be worn under your gown as sometimes stage lights make it possible to see through your gown and can be embarrassing for the princess and spectators. For safety reasons, your gown should not touch the floor. Due to seating arrangements while on stage, crinolines are permitted but no hoop skirts. Gowns with long trains are discouraged due to the possibility of others stepping on the train. Cowgirl/cowboy boots are not acceptable footwear when wearing a formal gown.

Non-acceptable Items:

Jeans or any jean denim material of any kind, cargo pants (a pair of pants with 5 or more pockets), shorts and cowgirl/cowboy boots are never to be worn for a promotion.

KEY MESSAGES FOR DAIRY PROMOTION

Animal Care

- Dairy farmers' commitment to providing high-quality milk begins with taking good care of their cows.
- Dairy farmers care for their cows by providing a nutritious diet, good medical care and healthy living conditions.
- Dairy farmers work closely with veterinarians and nutritionists to keep their cows healthy and comfortable. Dairy cows receive periodic checks, vaccinations and prompt treatment of illness.

Environment

- Dairy farmers live on or near the land that they farm. They understand the importance of protecting natural resources.
- Caring for the land, air and water are responsibilities dairy farmers share with the local community.
- Dairy farmers work with experts to find new ways to reduce the energy they use, conserve water and develop renewable energy sources.
- The best way to preserve land is to keep farms in business. Farmers understand and appreciate nature and take good care of their property.

Food Safety

- From the dairy to you, milk goes through strict quality controls to ensure freshness, purity and great taste.
- Milking equipment delivers milk directly from the cows to a refrigerated holding tank to preserve freshness and safety. The milk is then quickly transported to processing plants for continued freshness and safety.
- Since its introduction more than a century ago, pasteurization has been recognized around the world as an essential tool for ensuring that milk and dairy products are safe.

Health and Wellness

- Simple and natural, milk contains essential nutrients, including calcium, potassium, protein and phosphorus; plus, it's fortified with vitamins A and D.
- Milk's powerful nutrient package of calcium, plus 12 other essential nutrients, helps nourish your body, not just your bones.
- The protein naturally found in milk helps to build strong muscles for your active lifestyle.
- Milk is high in calcium and vitamin D. It's a good source of protein, and one glass has as much potassium as a small banana.
- On average, Americans consume only about two servings of dairy daily. Adding one serving of dairy every day can help Americans get the nutrients they need in an easy and affordable way.
- The body of science indicates that eating nutritious dairy foods- such as milk, cheese, and yogurt- improves bone health, especially in children and adolescents. They also are associated with a reduced risk of cardiovascular disease, Type 2 diabetes and lower blood pressure in adults.
- Dairy is irreplaceable in the diet as a source of essential nutrients. Milk, cheese and yogurt are nutrient rich and contribute significant nutrition to American's diets.
- Dairy foods offer high nutrition and economic value.

- Few foods deliver dairy's powerhouse of nutrients in such an affordable, appealing and readily available way.

Community

- Dairy farmers care about the health and well-being of their communities. They have been active members of their communities for many generations and create jobs that help sustain the local economy.
- America's dairy industry is an important contributor to our nation's overall economy. Dairy farmers purchase machinery, trucks, fuel and more from local companies. This creates jobs and produces revenue for their local communities.
- Where milk goes, jobs follow. In addition to providing and distributing nutritious products, the dairy industry generates substantial economic benefits at the local, regional and national levels through employment, local tax revenues and purchases of products and services. Jobs follow milk as it moves from farm to processing, distribution and retail. Jobs are also created within the supply and service sectors that support the industry.
- Every dollar spent locally by a dairy farmer creates a multiplier effect of more than 2.5 times the original dollar spent.

- Monthly reports must be completed and sent to the PDPPS incentive email by the 7th of each month if the Junior Dairy Promoters are working toward the Incentive Award. Forms will be provided by PDPPS and should be made out in duplicate with one copy being kept on file in the county.

County Princesses may also participate in a radio spot and/or scrapbook contest at State Competition. These contests will be judged, and winners will be recognized. Each contest is judged on its own merit and awards will be presented in each category. County Princesses, parents and committees should understand that winning a contest does not guarantee a princess a spot in the top seven; likewise, you do not have to win or place in any of the contest to earn a spot in the top seven.

Speech Required

County Princesses should write a speech related to one of the speech topics. It is suggested that county pageants use the state speech guidelines. All county competitions and coronations should allow time for each dairy princess contestant to present their speech. This allows princesses to gain experience speaking in front of others before arriving at State Competition. It is suggested that judges or county committee members time each speech and provide constructive feedback to each dairy princess contestant regarding their speech. All county princesses and alternates are expected to present their speeches at seminar to receive feedback.

Presentation Required

Most presentations have been in the form of a skit. PDPPS has opened the contest to allow princesses to develop a presentation of any sort geared for school age children. No power point presentations will be allowed. It is suggested that judges or county committee members time each presentation and provide constructive feedback to each dairy princess contestant regarding their presentation. All county princesses and alternates are expected to present their presentations at seminar to receive additional feedback. County Princesses requiring specific equipment use must notify the Program Director by September 1st.

Dairy Promotion Knowledge Test Required

A dairy promotion knowledge test will be given at State Competition. The test will be compiled from the information princesses received at the PA Dairy Princesses Training Seminar, other correspondence sent from PDPPS and industry statistics.

Display Board Required

Each County Princess will have the opportunity to set up a display board at state competition. Display boards should be original and created by the County Princess. The displays will remain up through competition evening for guests to view. The display boards will be judged by a panel of judges and awards will be presented.

Recipe Contest Required

Each Princess is required to submit three (3) dairy recipes to Pennsylvania Dairy Princess and Promotion Services, Inc, with their princess application by June 1, 2025. Each recipe submitted will be judged for uniqueness, organization, at least two (2) dairy products, and taste. There will be a winner and runner-up winner and three honorable mentions. One recipe per princess will be compiled into the Royal Recipe Book; however, if not submitted by the deadline, your recipe may not be in the book.

Scrapbook

Optional

A scrapbook is a record of your journey as Dairy Princess. Princesses may submit a scrapbook on Thursday of state competition at registration. There is one scrapbook category and should be a traditional scrapbook. Majority of your scrapbook should be a result of your own work. In past years many scrapbooks were disqualified for not following the requirements. Use the checklist provided to make sure your scrapbook is eligible for an award at State Competition.

Radio Spot

Optional

Each County Princess will have the opportunity to record one 30 second radio spot at state competition. Radio spots must be original and written by the county princess. Radio spots will be judged by a panel of judges and awards will be presented. The two winning radio spots will be presented on stage during competition.

State Royalty Judging

For a position on the State Royalty Team, special emphasis will be focused on the candidate's knowledge of all aspects of the industry and ability to speak clearly and intelligently for the dairy industry and on her general scorecard.

Since the majority of State Royalty appearances are with adult groups, a candidate needs to be able to perform as a public relations individual. Her audience should always feel she is extremely happy to be at their function. She should always be able to deliver a short appropriate speech, if asked, whether or not she has had previous notice.

She must be well informed regarding the activities of all the dairy check-off agencies, which serve Pennsylvania.

State Royalty Responsibilities

All members of the state dairy royalty team should consider their reign a great honor and wonderful opportunity. County dairy princesses sometimes decide to change their decision regarding their interest in a state title while at state competition. If this is the case, that decision should be well communicated directly to the competition judges and must be shared before the awards dinner. Each of them will be serving as a role model for the other members. They shoulder the responsibility of setting the best examples possible.

The following guidelines are written to help the State Royalty approach the year with a clear understanding of what is expected of each of them.

- State Royalty must adhere to the dress code as set forth in this handbook
- Be committed to dairy promotion and the agriculture industry.

- Be free of military commitments that would interfere with your reign.
- Become knowledgeable and current about issues concerning the dairy industry and agriculture.
- Attempt through preparation and practice, to develop yourself into an effective public speaker.
- Be prompt and consistent in writing all letters, thank you notes and correspondence that are necessary and desirable.
- Periodically take time to evaluate yourself, making every effort to improve.
- Treat all state and county royalty equally.
- Behave in a manner that conveys and commands respect, while being personable, concerned, and interested in the people around you.
- Consider dating relationships, extra-curricular activities and jobs flexible to your state royalty responsibilities.
- Avoid participation in and actively discourage any conversations which belittle or downgrade fellow royalty and adults.
- Serve as a member of the team, always maintaining a cooperative attitude.
- Achieve 2nd level Incentive in your county
- Understand a member of the team could be away from home around 100 days of the year.
- Be committed to checking/responding to email/phone calls every 24-48 hours.

Additionally, the State Royalty Team will be required to review, and sign, a Code of Conduct presented to her the morning after the State Competition. A breakfast/brunch will be held for the new State Royalty Team (SRT) and her parents/guardians Sunday after State Competition to review the PDPPS guidelines and expectations.

Speech Contest

You are asked to choose one of the suggested topics and compose a 3-5 minute speech. To help develop your speech you are allowed to use any sources available to you, however the speech must be written by the county princess.

Each County Princess is required to participate in the speech contest at the State Competition in September. You will give your speech in front of a panel of main judges and an audience. Any speech under/over the 3-5 minute allotted time will be disqualified. There will be timekeepers. The speech room will be equipped with a podium with a microphone or wireless lavalier. You can choose your style to deliver your speech either at the podium or free-standing.

Remember to target the audience described in the speech topic you choose. As a potential state dairy princess, you will need to be a comfortable, confident public speaker. Prepare and be confident!

County princesses should bring their speech to seminar to be critiqued.

If you have any questions concerning the speech topics, please feel free to call Carrie, Laura or a regional board member.

TINA M. SHULTZ MEMORIAL AWARD

Tina Marie Shultz

1968-1986

Tina Marie Shultz was a member of the 1985-86 class of county dairy princesses. Selected to serve as Huntingdon County's Dairy Princess in June of 1985, she did an outstanding job of promoting the dairy industry and its products under extremely difficult personal complications.

Just three months before her county pageant she lost her left leg to cancer and throughout her reign she battled the insidious disease. Except when she was hospitalized, Tina seldom missed an engagement or opportunity to promote. As Beth Heald, 1985-86 Pennsylvania Dairy Princess, wrote "Tina represented the dairy industry with a sense of pride and devotion that was admired by everyone who knew her. . . (she) fulfilled her role as Dairy Princess with as much enthusiasm and hard work as those of us who are healthy."

Following Tina's death in May of 1986, her sister princesses established a fund for an award to be given in her honor. It seemed fitting that the "Outstanding County Promoter Award" initiated in 1985 be designated the "Tina Shultz Memorial Award." In 1993, a second memorial was attached to the "Tina M. Shultz Memorial Award" in memory of Margaret Shultz of Montgomery County, also a member of the Princess Class of 1985-86 who succumbed to cancer in 1993. The award was changed to a scholarship application in 2019.

The Princess must meet second level incentive and complete and submit the Tina M Schultz Memorial Scholarship application by June 20th to the PDPPS office, directly following their County reign. Applications are available on the members-only section or email Laura at laura@padairy.org.

The recipient of the Tina M. Shultz is determined by a review panel. The panel reviews only the activities of the princess listed on the application. The Tina M. Shultz Award recipient is announced, recognized annually at State Competition and provided a monetary scholarship.

JAN HARDING-RUSLAVAGE PERSEVERANCE AWARD

The Jan Harding-Ruslavage Perseverance Award will recognize one county princess who has achieved 2nd level incentives within her county while accomplishing the HIGHEST PERCENTAGE OF INVOLVEMENT of the promotions. This award is to encourage the county princesses to be the leaders of dairy promotions, excel in dedication and persevere through challenges of involvement of school, church, and other community involvements while representing and being the voice of the dairy industry.

ALLIED MILK PRODUCER'S SPECIAL INCENTIVE AWARDS

This incentive is open to all county dairy princesses and alternate county dairy princesses.

The mission of the Allied Milk Producers' Cooperative is to teach people of all ages the need to enhance and preserve their nutritional health through the consumption of vitamins and minerals from the five food groups, with emphasis on three daily servings from the milk group.

To encourage the development and use of a wider variety of dairy promotions Allied Milk Producers' Cooperative sponsors a Special Incentive Award open to all Pennsylvania County Princesses and Alternates. Allied Milk Producers will reward any county Princess/Alternate for carrying out one or more of the promotions outlined on the "Ideas for Special Promotions" sheet. The promotion must be identifiable from the idea sheets but may be expanded or elaborated on. Other original activities are encouraged but must be approved in advance by Allied Milk Producers.

Princesses/Alternates will need to send the completed "Allied Milk Producers Special Incentive" form to Allied Milk Producers. The form must be filled out completely. Supporting materials such as photos, news releases, copies of letters, etc. should be included with the form.

This "special promotion" can also count towards your PDPPS incentive levels, it must also be logged on your PDPPS incentive sheet and incorporate a Dairy Promotion Key Message(s). A copy of the Allied Milk Producers Special Incentive form should also be submitted along with the PDPPS monthly incentive reports.

For each reported activity Allied Milk Producers will pay $50.00. Princesses/Alternates are encouraged to do one different promotion each month with the potential of earning up to $600.00 during their 12-month reign.

Reports must be submitted within two months of completing the promotion. For example, if you complete the promotion on August 1, your report must be received by Allied Milk Producers no later than October 1.

Allied Milk Producers will review each report and checks will be sent directly to the participating Princess/Alternate.

Ideas for Allied Special Promotions

1. Construct and use various costumes to promote June Dairy Month, July Ice Cream Month and/or October Cheese Month. Example: a cow, a piece of cheese, a milkshake, or a dairy barn. Use your imagination. Sandwich boards can be used to announce an event or promote a product.
2. Do a milk-drinking contest, relay style. Everyone gets an 8 oz. serving. First person drinks from glass or cup; second must use a small straw; third must use a spoon; and fourth, a baby bottle with nipple.
3. Make a predetermined number of thank you cards then visit a restaurant and reward every child (up to 12 years old) having dairy (milk, yogurt, ice cream) with a thank you card. Wording may be something like “Thank you for purchasing and consuming dairy with your meal. And supporting local dairy farmers and the dairy industry. In appreciation, I am giving you this one-dollar bill to cover your dairy item. Name: County Dairy Princess.
4. Arrange with the supermarket manager to place a sticker on the front of several shopping carts, and then watch for them to come to the checkout line. Surprise them by offering to pay for their dairy product purchases. If there are no dairy items, wait for the cart to be used again.
5. Offer to provide dairy facts to organizations holding “annual meetings” such as DHIA, 4-H Achievement, FFA groups, Holstein or other breed groups. Ask them to include the facts in the program booklet.
6. Organize and set up a guessing contest offering the opportunity to win prizes by guessing. Example: weight of a cheese wheel in a store/bank window. Closest guess receives a prize.
7. How many words can be made from “milk”, “butter”, or “cheese”? Design a contest for use in schools, service clubs, scouts or 4-H.
8. July- Ice Cream Month. Prepare sheets with about 20 different flavors of ice cream with the letters scrambled. Give contestants a set amount of time to see how many they can get. Give prizes.
9. Set up a display in a bank, courthouse, or store window featuring locally distributed dairy products with articles telling of the product’s history and nutritional value. Offer free sampling during certain hours.
10. Select a “Dairy Farm Family of the Week” (month) with newspaper articles and pictures about the operation, family involvement, and responsibilities.
11. Organize a dairy food silent auction. Participants (4-H club, etc.). Make dairy food recipes; invite bids to be placed under the food items. Highest bidder buys the food.
12. Nursing home residents like to take part in activities. Give them a milk mustache and take pictures. Let the residents themselves vote for the “best” mustache.
13. Ask the mayor of your town to proclaim a “milk break” for all government offices and public places at a designated time.

14. Most banks and implement dealers have Customer Appreciation Days. Ask if you can set up a display during that time and give samples of dairy that enhance their refreshment table. If you make a dairy dish, be sure the recipe is available.
15. Conduct a survey in a neighborhood by going house to house asking questions regarding dairy products on hand. Give a prize for each product on hand at that time.
16. Organize a special dairy parade. Can be a bicycle or walking floats.
17. Provide local businesses with a quantity of dairy recipes to be included with their monthly billings.
18. At the fair, pick an appropriate night; be at the entrance to the grandstand with samples of milk punch, butter cookies, cheese fudge, ice cream salad or popcorn with real butter. Have recipes available.
19. Similar to No. 8 make a list of common dairy dishes with letters scrambled and have contestants figure them out, in a certain amount of time. Ex: Buchgeresere = cheeseburger.
20. Visit and ask local dentists to display June Dairy month posters and dairy calcium information during June. Or, ask to make a display in February to observe Dental Health Month.
21. Arrange with County Commissioners to visit all courthouse offices and give a dairy treat to employees. Suggestions: flavored milk with butter cookies, ice cream, eggnog and snack mix, cheese and crackers, yogurt and fruit. Include recipes.
22. Arrange with your school administration to share a “dairy food fact” one day a week (or more often) along with the school’s morning announcements. Do it at least 4 times to qualify.
23. Plan a June Dairy Month breakfast, brunch or similar event at your farm. Invite local government officials and the press.
24. Help a 4-H club sponsor a “Dairy Dance” crowning a “King” and “Queen”.
25. Organize an “Ice Cream Social” in conjunction with a crowd-gathering event (band concert, homemaker’s meeting, dairy day at the fair). Use dairy posters, place mats, etc. Draw for dairy prizes.
26. On half sheets of paper put a dairy word, then pin or tape it to the back of each person. The participants must ask questions of the others that can be answered “yes” or “no” to try to determine the word on their back. Ex: Do I have to be kept cold? Do I have four legs? Do kids like me?
27. Give a dairy recipe book or dairy food basket to each couple applying for a marriage license during June.
28. Make and place table tents suggesting “dairy with your dinner” in local motel/hotel rooms.
29. Hold a contest to find the oldest active dairy couple in the community and crown them “King” and Queen” at a special event. Award gifts. Excellent chance for publicity.
30. Sponsor a cheese auction with a real auctioneer and a variety of types and sizes of cheese. Profit may be divided between youth or community projects and the dairy promotion committee.
31. Hold an Ice Cream Eating Contest. Set age limits. See which contestant can eat a half pint, pint or more of ice cream in the shortest time. Give prizes.
32. Organize a “photo shoot”. Charge a nominal fee for a photo with a cow, calf, or milk mustache.

33. Volunteer to participate in a walk-a-thon for CROP, or cancer awareness, by passing out milk chugs or cheese sticks.
34. Help organize a June Dairy Month or a July Ice Cream Festival. Give dairy prizes. Hold “Hee Haw” type show with cow jokes, booths, or Dairy Bowl contest with several teams competing to answer dairy related questions.
35. Organize an “Open House” or “Open Barn” or “Night at the Farm”. Display farm equipment with replacement costs, labor and feed requirements along with animals. Could also include a barn dance and/or barbecue.
36. Conduct a survey in school on the use of various dairy products in the students’ homes. You can also offer samples of various less used products- yogurt, sour cream, cream cheese, flavored milks, or Parmesan cheese.
37. Conduct food-tasting clinics to compare REAL versus imitation products. Example: popcorn with butter vs. margarine; pudding with whipped cream or non-dairy topping, hot chocolate made with milk or water, etc.
38. Hold a dairy food scavenger hunt. Prepare maps with clues to locations of foods. First individual to find all clues and return receives a prize. Good for adults or children.
39. Make up dairy words to old familiar tunes, have copies made and use them for group singing at meetings you attend.

POLICIES FOR COUNTY PROGRAMS

The PDPPS board has created the following policies to ensure that young dairy promoters across Pennsylvania are having the same experience in the program regardless of the county they reside in.

Selection of county dairy princesses must be held between April 1st and May 31st.

It is strongly suggested that county pageants use the overall, speech and presentation scorecards provided by the state. These are the same scorecards used at State Competition.

A county committee shall allow ALL qualified young women in their county/region to compete for dairy princess. In cases where more than one young lady is interested in serving as dairy princess in a given year, a contest must be held. Counties must use the Dairy Princess Qualifications for all princess and alternate candidates, these qualifications may not be altered in any way. A county must have a County Dairy Princess in order to have County Alternate Dairy Princesses.

If only one young woman is interested in serving as dairy princess the county should hold a coronation. At the coronation the young lady shall be given the opportunity to participate in an interview process and give a speech and/or presentation in preparation for her role as dairy princess.

If a county committee member is related to a dairy princess contestant, then the county should request the state office to make arrangement for judges

County Royalty should respond to Committee within 24-48 hours.

Before removing a County Dairy Princess, Alternate Dairy Princess or Junior Dairy Promoter from the county promotion team for any reason the county must contact the state office.

The Sash and Crown Order Form also serves as your order invoice. Sash and Crown orders must be accompanied by a check and will not be sent until payment is received. If payment is not received with your Sash and Crown order form, your order will not be sent.

Once you have registered for a PDPPS meeting, if you must cancel, you must do so within 96 hours of the event. If cancelation is made with less than 96 hours notice or you fail to attend the meeting for any reason, your county program will be held financially responsible.

Since reservations for Seminar and State Competition are made in May, if a county princess fails to attend Seminar or State Competition, she will be held financially responsible. If an adult needs to cancel their Seminar registration, they must do so by 9:00 am on July 1, 2024 or they will be held financially responsible. (i.e. Fall/Spring Meeting $20.00; Mini-Seminar $15.00; Seminar $275.00; State Pageant $400.00)

Princesses will not be given any exceptions for not attending PDPPS Training Seminar or State Competition. If they are unable to attend these two events, they must postpone their reign to another year. They will also be financially responsible for the amounts indicated above.

All invoices not paid within 30 days will be assessed a $30.00 late fee. A $30.00 late fee will be assessed for every 30 days an invoice is not paid.

Incentive award checks are mailed directly to county chairperson/treasurer, whichever has the most up to date information on file with PDPPS, following State Competition. If yearly committee reporting is not submitted, counties will not receive funding for that particular year. Each county is responsible for having their own policy regarding the handling of the earned incentive monies. It is recommended the county provides this money to the retiring princess to help offset any cost she may have accrued during her reign. If a county has any outstanding invoices, their incentive check will be deducted the amount of the invoice, including any late fees assessed.

County Promotion/Princess Committee Organization Structure

Requirements for Membership on a Committee:

- Should be dedicated to the promotion of milk and dairy products at the local level.
- Able to volunteer time, talent and energy to the program.

For a smooth functioning committee, officers and members should meet on a regular basis to maintain continuity of programming and maintain communications among the membership. - Elect officers every year. This avoids anyone feeling overburdened while keeping the committee vital, active and fresh.
- Establish sub-committees as necessary for special projects or activities.

- Meet regularly with dairy royalty.

- Write news articles for newspaper publications.

Contestant Chairperson(s):

- Hold a “Princess Tea” or meeting to talk with the contestants and parents to explain the program to them. Show slides of what has been done in the county with the princesses. Have your reigning princess tell them of the advantages of serving the industry in this position. If applicable, have reigning princess bring her scrapbook to show princess candidates or create a year in review slideshow. It is highly suggested the Princess Tea informational meetings are held after spring meetings take place.

Banquet/Competition Committee:

- Once the date for the competition is set, locate a restaurant or other facility in which to hold the county competition. Get prices, fees and quotes.

PPDPs, Inc. strongly recommends that each county adopt and incorporate their own set of county by-laws that outline requirements of committee members, princesses, alternate and junior promoters.

PPDPs, Inc. also asks that each county committee person read and review the Code of Conduct and understand that their behavior and conduct applies to the same rules that are established for dairy royalty.

YEARS OF SERVICE VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

Your County Dairy Promotion Committee can show its pride in and gratitude to your volunteer(s) by recognizing one (or more) persons for their years of service. Nominating valued volunteers from your county dairy promotion committee not only shows your appreciation, it also highlights them and the county to the community for their outstanding service.

Volunteers are critical to our dairy promotion efforts and undoubtedly there are individuals within your counties that have been the backbone of your organization for many years, or are currently one of the key drivers in making everything happen. Through PDPPS's Years of Service Recognition Program, county committees will have the opportunity to publicly thank some of these important individuals.

The PDPPS Years of Service recognition program will recognize those volunteers that have dedicated 15, 25, 35 and 50 or more years of service to the county dairy promotion program. Counties are responsible for determining when volunteers are eligible for recognition and submitting the nomination form on time. It is the goal of PDPPS to have a Board Member or the Program Director honor the volunteers at each county pageant. Recipients will receive a Certificate of Appreciation and a lapel pin marking their service.

To nominate your volunteer(s), please complete and return the attached form to the PDPPS office no later than April 1st. Nomination form attached.

A photo of the award recipient should be emailed to the Administrative Director no later than June 1, for inclusion in the State Competition program booklet.

Now is the time to show the community and individual(s) your appreciation. Most of our county programs would not exist without our talented, dedicated volunteers.
